Arresting

-He’ll be there all right!

-Then send two officers to arrest him.

-I didn’t finish, Chief. It’ll be a hologram!

-Can’t hardly arrest one of them.

-Not in our present form.

-Then let’s get that new IT youngster make a hologram of me!

-And your hologram arrest his?

-Yup!

-Excuse me, Chief, but to what end?

-Just gives a little media reach is all.
Networks probably cover, and all that jazz.
And soon his lawyer comes to talk.
And we work out a way for him to turn himself in!

-If this pans out, I'll call you a genius!

-No way! Just a practical man using what he can.
